in the Choice of

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

Of New York.

Thos. A. Hendricks, of Indiana, Nominated for Vice-Pres-

Sc. Leuis, June 28.-The committee on tirely to the financial plank. Current ru- it to the convention. It is as follows: mor, well defined, is that the majority favor the plank fabricated by Dorsheimer, of New York, which is earnestly opposed by except that ten minutes be allowed for pre-senting either candidate nominated. expressing their views, and asked that it be and the great charter of these, our rights,

Mr. Lane, of Maryland, inquired the or-form, and was greeted with applause. He said he had been laboring since he came here to keep cool inside as well as out; did not think it was proper, during a recess of the convention, to speak at may considerable length, and especially not to express any personal preference as to candidates. He believed that the great responsibility vested on this convention to take such measures, present such platform and candidates as shall make a victory certain. The Republican party is a great party, and not a week party. He had fought with it and against it; new it inside and ont, and he claim-d that, for fifteen years, it had been a war party, not only during the war, but after the war had ended, by a reconstruction of the South, in order to gain unlimited control of both houses of Congress. He saw in the Senate, a gentleman, Stockton, of New Jersey, now on the floor of this convention, driven from his seat.

The speaker proceeded with further illustices and make a process of the national date and of the process. He population and their the make a process of the national and their the process of the national and their the process. The speaker proceeded with further illustices the receiver and inferior rank upon the hall and out and dark and the cut down the sales of American and abroad and der pleted the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an industry, followed by half of our people of the content of the returns of American agriculture, an i

The speaker proceeded with further illustrations of his charge, that the Republican purely had usurped the power, trampled the constitution under foot, robbed ten millions of people of evrey civil right, and subjected them to the rule of military dictators. He urged that in the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler that Republican purely formulated the proposed, the constitution of the constitution of the formulated the proposed, for the constitution and twice that sum for the rederal more than twice that sum for the Federal Government alone. We demand a vigor ous frugality in every department and from every officer of the Government. Reform [Applause] by that we will stand or fall. If you want soft money, give your votes to its most distinguished advoproced them to the rule of mixing a decidency. He can be provided them to the rule of mixing a decidency of the content of the of the committee on resolutions, presented a report. It states that a great many reso-Sc. Letts, June 28.—The committee on lutions were presented, all of which had platform sat until one o'clock this mo.n-been carefully examined and discussed being, and then adjourned without coming to fore coming to an agreement. He requested a ballot, the serious differences relating en-

THE PLATFORM.

We, the delegates of the Democratic part of the United States, in National Convention and the Property at the morning, but had not organized at twenty minutes of eleven.

The platform is substantially agreed upon except on the financial question, but had not been put in form. No reliable sympais of it can be had, because of diager of changes in the final draft, President McClernard called the convention to order fire minutes after eleven, introducing Father Brady, of St. Louis, who offered a prayer.

Mr. Campbell, of Tenn., moved to dispense with the reading of the minutes of yesterday. Agreed to.

Mr. Young, of Georgia, offered a resolution that the conventionness the reform inaugurated by the House of Representatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censure of a Vice-President, a late Speaker of the House of Representatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censure of a Vice-President, a late Speaker of the House of Representatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censure of a Vice-President, a late Speaker of the House of Representatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censure of a Vice-President, a late Speaker of the House of Representatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censured in the speaker of the vice-presentatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censured in the speaker of the vice-presentatives marketing his republic show the diagrace and censured in the House of Representative of the late House of Representative of the must go to the committee on platform.

Mr. Cox, of New York, offered a resolution that the will of the people, as expressed in the appropriation bill, should be respected.

Mr. Villas, of Wisconsin, offered a resolution that the will of the people, as expressed in the appropriation bill, should be respected.

Mr. Villas, of Wisconsin, offered a resolution that the will of the people, as expressed in the appropriation bill, should be respected.

Mr. Villas, of Wisconsin, offered a resolution that the will of the people, as expressed in the appropriation bill, should be reform and lest by making no change of measures and no reform. All these abuses, wrongs and crimes, the product of sixteen years ascendancy of the Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform, confessed by Republican party, create a necessity for reform and confess by faithful educating of the right generation | voted down in convention and dilution confining delegates to five minutes, that they may preserve, enjoy and transmit from the Cabinet; the parties' mass of hon

Reform is necessary to establish a der of business.

The chair replied: The report of the committee on resolutions has not yet been national honor. We denounce the failure nority report, recommending striking out seri canal complied: The report of the committee on resolutions has not yet eeen made.

Mr. Lane moved that the committee the proceed at once to ballot. (Applame.)

There should the no attempt by the continuous process of the legal tender notes, which proceed at once to ballot. (Applame.)

There should the no attempt by the continuous process of the legal tender notes, which in the convention had the duty to the maintain the brown of the provide of the process of the state of the legal tender notes, which in the convention had the duty to the maintain the people in feeting that the convention had the duty to the continuous the convention of the legal tender notes, which in the convention had the duty to the continuous the convention of the legal tender notes, which is the found the proper in feeting that the convention of the legal tender notes, which the convention of the legal tender notes, which the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the proper in feeting that the convention of the legal tender notes, which the convention of the legal tender notes, which the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the proper in feeting that the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large the convention of the legal tender notes, which the large th called for, took the platform and applanes. He acknowledged the complication for exercised in life years and application for exercised in life years. We consider the complication for exercised in life years. We consider the platform and application for exercised in life years. We consider the platform and application for exercised in life years. We consider the platform and application for exercised in life years. We consider the platform and application for exercised in life years. We consider the platform and application for exercised in life years. We construe the extent of the degree form the platform and application for exercised the construent of the degree form the platform and application for exercised the construent of the degree form the platform and application for exercised the construent of the degree form the platform and application for the platform and applicatio the Committee.

A Curious Specimen of Political Architecture.

A Curious Mr. Wallace, of Penn., followed with a caustic criticism of the Republican party, which, he said had made a ticket, born of the defeat of the only strong candidate, hated and denounced by the administration, men nominated for their negative character alone. He convention.

AFTERNON SESSION.

AFTERNON SESSION.

AGTICANON SESSION SESSION.

AGTICANON SESSION SESS

that the party in power can work out no practical or salutory reform. Reform is necessary even more in the high grades of public service. President, Vice-President, Indges, Senators, Representatives California. that the party in power can work out no practical or salutory reform. Reform is Judges, Senators, Representatives, Cabinet A Texas delegate moved to clear the gal-officers;—these and all others in authority are the people's servants. Their offices are question, he evidently did not understand not rivate perquisites—they are a pub-lic trust. When the annals of this with increasing force and violence, a dozer except that ten minutes be allowed for presenting either candid-te nominated.

Mr. Cox, of New York, presented a memorial of the Workingmen's Central Union, expressing their views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it he expressions the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and asked that it has the expression of the views and the views are the views and t made a part of the proceedings of the convention.

It behoves a free people to practice, also of parties, that we may have a change of that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty. Reform is necessary to rebuild

The reading was frequently interrupted Mr. Eaton, of Kansas, moved that it be printed in the proceedings, and referred to the platform committee. Adopted.

Mr. Kelley, of New York, at the request of some New York delegates, presented a paper signed by many prominent gentlemen in New York State, to show the character of the gentlemen who are opposing the nomination of Gov. Tilden. [Applause and hisses.]

Mr. Jacobs, of New York, made a point of order, that this was out of order.

The chair so decided.

Mr. Lane, of Maryland, inquired the orplication the bill for which the Democrats are not responsible—a measure which never received a Democratic vote. [Here time was called, and much confusion ensued, in consequence of efforts to secure more time for Ewing.]

The Chair ruled that as objection was

The Chair ruled that as objection was made, the time could not be exceeded.

Mr. Dorsheimer appealed for a withdrawal of the objection, and it was withdrawn, and, by unanimous consent, Ewing was authorized to proceed

Another scene of confusion ensued.

Mr. McLane, of Maryland, renewed the

Mr. McLane, of Maryland, renewed the objection to hearing Ewing further. Finally, Ewing thanked the convention for the kindly epirit manifested towards him, and said he would trouble them no further. [Further cries for Ewing. "Order!" "Order!"]

Mr. Cox, of New York, rose to a point of order in which was understood to reflect on reform and relief, and he hoped the convention would put forward a platform and candidate that would unmistakably embrace those ideas

Mr. Wallace, of Penn., followed with a caustic criticism of the Republican party, which, he said had made a ticket, born of the defeat of the only strong candidate, hated and denounced by the administration, men, nonlineared for their negative.

It is light anew the dying embers of sectional that between kindred people, once unnatural debate.

Mr. Abbot, of New Jersey, asked a distingular common destingular conduct of the question. He was in favor of the motion to strike out, but was opposed to inserting what was proposed, for he was for hard money.

The previous question was seconded, and Service be subject to change at every election.

A Texas delegate moved to clear the gal-

During the call, the Chair stated that during the confusion preceding the call, he changed his ruling, and the previous question was not divided, therefore, the pending question was, in fact, upon Mr. Ewings motion, both to strike out and insert.

Mr. Doolittle read an amendment which resumption.

The Chair stated that under the opera

Before the vote was announced. Missouri

North Carolina changed to 19 for Tilden and 1 for Hancock, without waiting for the nnouncement from the Chair.

Loud and tumultous cheering arose from the convention, and for ten minutes the excitement and noise almost drowned the Indiana seconded Pennsylvania's motion to make the nomination unanimous.

in each selection life for the recomption act reterm was in color, and the pending of the conterm was in color, and the pending of the conThe rull was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conThe rull was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was in called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the conterm was called. The only prove the first color, and the pending of the color, and the first color of the color, and the pending of the color of the first color, and the pending of the color of the first color, and the pending of the color of the first color of place near the Called.

The pending direct call not create the called by your thank of the pending of the color of Tilden's name was received with great cheers.

Mr. John Kelly, of New York, next took the platform. An attempt was made to his him down.

[A delegate—"There seems to be some gene in the hall."] [Cries of "Clear the galleries."] But with Kelly's first sentence complete order was restored, until some on made a point that he was out of order, unless he intended to second the nomination of Tilden.

Then ensued a long scene of confusion, hissing, calls for Kelly, etc.

Mr. Hutchins, of Mo., insisted upon order; the expected to vote for Tilden, but Mr. Kelly was entitled to be heard.

A delegate from Kansas demanded the expense of the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence] Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence] Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the many for the benefit of the scathing of the vipers who hiss. [Loud apullence in lives the who would rescue the habits and moral of other and pure the tooked the state the insure the vote of the State of New York, in the lines the habit in lives, the state the insure the vote of the State of New York, took the stand amid cheers, mingled with hisses.

A Delegate Mr. Chairman, the sum the vote of the same the vote of the State of New York, took the stand amid cheers, mingled

I know that any Democrat that comes into the administration will work out these reforms; but, if we are wise men, we will take a man, if we can find him, who has done reforms when in office. I have no disrespect for the Democrat who, in this ledieve that it you are beaten in those two States it will be an utter impossibility.

New York. [Cheers, and "that asked if it was in order for her to change her votes before the result be announced.

Missouri asked for five minutes for condiscent the Democratic who, in this convention, can ratter dissent to the good repute of any candidate named. I honor them all. I am addressing your judgment, them all. I am addressing your judgment, I have said that if we had a man that had I had I have said that if we had a man that had I ha sultation. Tally clerks were fully ten minutes compairing their figures, and meantime pute of any candidate named. I honor them all. I am addressing your judgment. I have said that if we had a man that had been claimed their right to cast their individual votes for Tilden, arguing that the resolution under which they acted, did not bind them beyond the first vote.

A Virginia delegate complained that he had been deprived of his individual vote by the sum of the vote by the vote of the vote by the sum of the vote by the sum of the vote by the vote of had been deprived of his individual vote by the by the announcement of the vote by the chairman of the delegation.

Twenty delegates were on the floor at once, all striving to be heard.

The striving to be heard.

candidate to say that this is the man that will command the confidence of men who have not been always with the Democracy, and make our claim strong, so that it will sweep all over this Union a triumphant party vote. Now, there is in the State whence I come, a Pemocrat who has the whence I come, a Pemocrat who has the confidence on the position. whence I come, a Femocrat who has the good fortune to be placed in the position where these qualities have been exemplified. There had grown up in our great Democratic Various other States announced change, mid great confusion, Delaware going solid or Tilden.

Pennsylvania moved to make it-unammous.

Finally, the vote was announced as follows:

Whole vote on second ballot, 738. Newbord to a choice, 492.

Tilden had 535:

Tilden had 535:

Tilden had 535: they estored honesty and economy, and they restored honesty and economy, and these men have flown to other lands, lest they should be punished for their crimes.

| And assume that the man who who proposed the three cheers for Tilden. Great confusion ensued, and cries of "Put they should be punished for their crimes.

[Applause.] He was selected as Governor him out!" "No! No!"

can be heard in reply.

Mr. Kelly—I believe that in view of the elections that will take place in October in Indiana and Ohio, that if that nomination was given to the Western people we could save one or both of those States. [Cheers] recollect that in all these cases, the States of Indiana and Ohio were lost. Now you pro-amid confusion.

Mr. Abbott, of New Jersey, said Henthe country. I say to the Democracy of Indiana, you have no right to raise your Ta this Union want it.

The ballot was here taken, which result-

Michigan, Hendricks 22; Minnesota Michigan, Hendricks 22; Minnesota, 10; Missouri, 30; New Hampshire 10; Ken-tucky, 24; Louisiana, 16; Iowa, 22; Georgia, 22; Florida, 8; Massachusetts, 26; Illinois, 42; Kansas, 10; Maine, 14; Maryland, 16; Mississippi, 16; Nevada, 6; West Virginia, 10; Virginia, 22; Vermsnt, 10; California, 12; New Jersey, 18; Colora-do, 6; North Carolina, 20; Texas, 16; Oregon, 6; North Carolina, 20; Iexas, 10; Oregon, 6; South Carolina, 14; Tennessee, 24; Pennsylvania, 50; Rhode Island, 8; Ohio, 36; blank, 8; Deleware, 6; New York, 70;

The Chair announced several telegram The Chair announced several telegrams, which were read. One from Sedalia, Missouri, saying they had fired one hundred guns for Tilden, and hope Hendricks will be nominated for Vice-President. Another from Cincinnati, some from Maine, and others, approving, one from Jackson, Mississippi, pledging the State to the ticket, one from Mount Vernon, Illinois, saying the nomination of Tilden is read with great enthusiasm. Many others of similar charactures.

nia our flag will float triumphant in November next. [Great applause.] I second the nomination of Gov. Hendricks. [Applause.] Hendricks was then unanimously nomi-

Wallace, of Pennsylvania-The Pennsylvania delegation, in obedience to the will-ingness of Indiana that this convention take the responsibility of nominating Mr. Hen-dricks, give their support to that gentle-man. [Great applause.] With the Gov-ernor of New York (Tilden) for President, and Hendricks, the Democratic Governor of Indiana, for Vice-President, upon this tick-et, we will be triumphant in November. I et, we will be triumphant in November. I move, Sir, that this convention, by acclamtion, declare Thos. A. Hendricks the nominee for Vice-President of the United States. [Great applause.]

Mr. McDonald said Indiana would do its duty, but he implied doubts of the result in Indiana. The convention must take the responsibility.

Mr. Woodson, of Missouri, said his delegation instructed him to say that Missouri was, and the country would be, "on it" for Tilden and Hendricks. [Cheers.] He urged Hendricks' nomination.

urged Hendricks' nomination.
Mr. Wallace said Pennsylvania presented her united demand for Hendricks, and moved his nomination by acclamation.

Mr. Steadman, of Ohio, said his State wanted Henry B. Payne, but they would not present him in view of the demand for Hendricks, and seconded the motion to Mr. Hardin, of Missouri, offered a reso-lution that it is the duty of this convention man, and that it was his duty to the party and the country to serve, and said, "we hereby nominate him.

Mr. Brown, of Tennessee, seconded Hendricks, which would enable them to carry his state by 5,000.

The delegates insisted upon finishing the dricks was not the property of Indiana, but of the Democracy of the nation. No Demoof this convention, and Hendricks wont. He renewed the motion to suspend the rules and nominate by acclamation. Lost.

I renew the motion of Senator Wallace, I renew the motion of Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, that the rules be suspended, and that we vote by acclamation for the nomination of Thomas A. Hendricks. I will tell this convention why Thomas A. Hendricks is not the property of Indiana, but he is the property of the Democracy of the United States. [Cheers.] I say that there is no Democrat in the land that can refuse the nomination of the that can refuse the nomination of the National Convention, and Thomas A. Hen-dricks is a magnificent man as he is. He would as soon commit suicide, as to refuse to be held in 1800, whether or not it will be desirable to continue the two-thirds rule and as his name seems to be the choice of such request in their call for the conven-

> Wallace, of Pennsylvania-I call for division of the question, by dividing the question ending the first proposition, at the

The Indiana delegation are not author "Good!" "good!" and cheers.] We have no right to do so; but, sir, in view of this demonstration, the delegation from Indiana acquiesces in the decision of this convention. [Loud cheers, and cries of "good!" A voice: Announce the vote, ounce the result of the vote.

The clerk then announced the vote, follows: Total number of votes cast, 730. The President: Eight blank? Mr. Bell: Yes, sir; 738, of which Mr.

Hendricks receives 730. [Tremendous cheers and waving of hata] Hendricks was declared the nominee. Hendricks was declared the nominee.

Kelly, of New York, rose to address the Chair, amid loud calls of "Kelly! Kelly!"
He proceeded to the platform, amid cheers.

Mr. Chairman, and gentleman of the convention; there is no man holding a seat in this convention, who has worked more strenuously against the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden, than myself. I did it in the full belief, that it was impossible for us to carry the election with an from Mount Vernon, lilinois, saying nomination of Tilden is read with great enthusiasm. Many others of similar character, were read, endorsing the platform and candidate, the reading elicited but little interest. The Chairman announced that the business before the convention was the nomination of a candidate for Vice-President.

When Indiana was called for its nomination of this convention, yesterday, that this nomination of a candidate for Vice-President.

When Indiana was called for its nomination of this convention has decided otherwise. I submit my opinion to the decision of this convention for thusiasm. Indiana failing to present a candidate, some one from his seat among the Illinois delegation nominated Hendricks.

In this convention, who has worked more strenuously against the nomination of McMichael offered a resolution pledging individual and united support of nominees. Adopted.

Miller, of Nebraska, offered a resolution of thanks to Mr. Bell, for efficient services as Recording Secretary. [Applause.] Adopted.

States. The convention has decided otherwise. I submit my opinion to the decision of this convention, [cheers,] and now that Tilden is the candidate of our party. I riden is the candidate of thisting, calls for Kelly, etc.

Mr. Hechins, of Mo, insisted upon or der, he expected to vote for Tilles, but at an uplus, oppensive and iniquitous expectation, but at an uplus, oppensive and iniquitous expectation and opperatus announced that the united December of the Chair-Man and the property portion of thats to the United States of Indiana,—Mr. President and the uplus of the property portion of the States of Indiana,—Mr. President and General proposality; and ourselves the proposality; and ourselves the proposality; and ourselves the proposality; and ourselves the proposality and the proposality an

ten. Brent, of Louisians, seconded the one of the Union, where our dispirited also extractions of Texas.

In Mr. Smith, of Wisconsin, seconded Till-der's nonination.

Mr. Smith, of Wisconsin, seconded Till-der's nonination.

Mr. Doulittle samestly urged prudence, and said he did not believe he could carry and the did not believe he could carry and said the did not believe he could carry in the did not believe he carry in the carry in th that the people will be once more happy and contented. [Loud applause.] Hanna, of Indiana, thanked the convention for its expression of kindly feelings toward that State. The contest had been hard and bitter, but now the toma-have was buried, to rust forever. Let the Old Guard of Democracy now come to the f.ont. [Applause.] He continued to exhort to united efforts for success.

Miller, of Neb., offered a resolution recommending all future Democratic Conventions of the death the treathful success. ventions not to adopt the two-thirds rule. [Cries of "No!" and "Yes!"] The Chair ruled the resolution not in or-

The following is the National Democratic committee for the ensuing term:
Alabama, Walter L. Bragg; Arkansas,
John J. Lampter: California, Frank McCoffin; Colorado, O. M. Hughes; Connecticut, Wm. H. Barnum; Delaware, Robinson Hickman; Florida, Gen. McCall;
Georgia, George T. Barney; Illinois, William. C. Gandy; Indiana, Thomas
Tolen; Iowa, M. M. Ham; Fansas, Isaac
E. Eaton; Kentucky, Henry D. McHenry;
Louisiana, B. F. Jones; Missouri, John G.
Priest; Massachusetts, F. O. Prince; Michican; Edward Tainler: Minneasta. Wm. Priest; Massachusetts, F. O. Prince; Michigan; Edward Tainler; Minnesota, Wm. Lochran; Oregon, John Whittaker; Nevada, R. P S. Kenting; Nebraska, Geo, L. Miller; New York, Abram S. Hewitt; Maine, E. Wilson; Maryland, O. Hersey; New Jersey, Miles Ross; New Hampshire, A. W. Snlloway; Rhode Island, N. Van Block Tennessee, Wm. R. Bates; South Barksdale; Vermont, B. B. Smally; Ohio, J. S. Poyson; Pennsylvania, W. L. Scott; Alex. Campbell; Texas, F. S. Stockdale. tion tendering the thanks of the conven-tion to the committee on reception and the bers of the convention. Adopted.

Brown of Tennessee, offered a resolution appointing a committee to consist of the gate from each State, to visit the nominees Adopted.

The states named their members of thi committee. Among them were, from Cali-fernia, Geo. H. Rogers: Colorado, Adair Wilson: Nebraska, G. B. Scofield; Nevada, R. P. Kuling; New York, Henry C. Mur phy.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Webber, of Michigan, was read:
"Resolved, That it be recommended to as the sense of the Democracy here in conbe requested to instruct their delegates to the Democratic National Convention, Taylor, of Leavenworth, briefly opposed. Mr. Burch, of Tennessee-I move to lay that resolution on the table.

A Delegate—I demand the ayes and nocs. Ayes, 359; noes, 379; so the resolution was defeated.

word "abolished."
A Delegate from Missouri—I move the e, 24; me to say a division of the question is in Ohio, order, either be ore or after the main question be ordered. I desire simply to bring structions from the States in regard to the Pennsylvania demands a division of the question. The Clerk will read that portion upon which he calls for a division The Clerk read as follows: future Democratic National Conventions, as the sense of the Democracy here in con-necessary. The Secretary read the second part as follows:

"Resolved, That the States be requested o instruct their delegates to the Demo-

the two-thirds rule longer in force in Na-Convention insert such a request in the call